The City Dog Show

by Deanne W. Kells
illustrated by Janell Genovese

Come to the City Dog Show with me. There are lots of fancy dogs to see!

The show is in a big field. I think there are sixty dogs or more.

Not one dog is dirty or clumsy or grumpy. They all seem frisky and happy.

That small dog is a Yorkie. Yorkie dogs are really brave. A Yorkie is a buddy for life.

That big dog is a Husky. A Husky is fluffy and furry!
Every Husky likes places where it is snowy.

That silvery one is a Scotty dog. It has silky fur and a sturdy body. A Scotty dog is very perky.

Just a single dog will win the big prize. The judges are mighty picky. I think it will be a tricky job, don't you?
